An athlete will receive a maximum refund of $45 CAN per competition, even if she or he is registered in more than one event that is cancelled. If an event is rescheduled at another venue a $45 CAN event entry fee will be charged to the participating athletes.

NAC 2.2.3 ATHLETE INJURY REFUND POLICY

A registered athlete who withdraws from an event, before the generation of the official start list, will receive a refund of 50% of their entry fee. Athletes that appear on the official start list for an event will not be given a refund. No refunds will be given without a written request. All refund requests should be submitted in writing to the organizing committee no later than seven days after the completion of the last event day.

If an event is cancelled due to weather or exceptional circumstances, no refund will be issued. The organizing committee has already incurred all the costs of the event.

STATEMENT OF LIABILITY ACCIDENT INSURANCE

All athletes, officials and other members of the regions who attend and participate in the event shall do so at their own risk. Every competitor is required to have his/her own medical and life insurance that is adequate and covers manoeuvres being performed in training and competition, as well as a valid Freestyle Canada membership. The Organizing Committee, Freestyle Canada, WinSport and WinSport Canada Olympic Park shall not be responsible for accidents, damaged or lost equipment and belongings and/or second or third-party claims during the staging of the event. All participants are to protect and safeguard their personal belongings at all times.

ACCIDENT INSURANCE

Every competitor must have his/own medical insurance in accordance with the FIS ICR rule 204.2. The Organizing Committee, sponsors, suppliers, WinSport's Canada Olympic Park, Freestyle Canada, Canada Snowsports Association, sponsors, suppliers, their agents, employees and volunteers and FIS declines any responsibility for accidents, damaged equipment and second and third-party claims during the staging of the event.

SLOPESTYLE HEAT FORMAT

FIS 3060.2.9 - The Ski Slopestyle competition consist of qualifications and a final with or without a semifinal. The jury can determine the format, based on the number of competitors in the qualification by gender and time schedule. This decision must be made before and will be announced at the first team captain's meeting.

Qualification phases shall consist of two runs; the competitor's best single run will count. Finals will consist of qualified competitors. If semifinals are not included, equal numbers of the highest-ranked competitors from each heat will proceed to the final.

FIS 3060.2.9.1 - For Ski Halfpipe and Ski Slopestyle, the final consists of two or three runs. The start order for the final will be the reverse of the ranking from the qualification.

FIS - MEN

-45 skiers = 10 in finals best of three

46 - 60 skiers = 12 in finals best of three

+60 skiers = 16 in finals best of two

FIS - FEMALE

-30 skiers = 6 in finals best of three OR six but best of two if men finals have 16.

31+ skiers = eight in finals best of two OR best of three if men have 10 in finals

SCHEDULE

The Organizing Committee reserves the right to change the schedule of events from those stated in the program.
