

Freestyle Canada Female Coach Development Bursaries

Overview

This bursary program is designed to:

- Provide assistance to female coaches interested in pursuing a professional coaching career in Freestyle skiing.
- Alleviate financial barriers to coach development.
- Increase the number of positive female role models in Freestyle clubs across Canada.

This year Freestyle Canada will offer two bursary awards in the amount of $1000. The bursaries will be given to support one female coach in the pursuit of Comp Dev certification and the second to support a female coach to attend SuperCoach Academy 2019

Eligibility Criteria

You may apply for the Freestyle Canada Coach Bursary if you meet the following eligibility criteria:

You are currently or plan to coach at a sanctioned club or provincial team in Canada for the 2019/2020 season and plan to continue coaching Freestyle athletes for the longer term.

Application Process

Please submit an application detailing the following:

Coach Name and NCCP Number
Contact Information (Email, Mailing Address, Phone Number) and coaching experience.

- Why you are applying for this bursary (500 words or less)
- What your coaching goals are (500 words or less)
- Why you feel you should be selected (500 words or less)

Please include a brief letter of support from your club or province body outlining how this bursary will assist in achieving their stated objectives for the development of female coaches

You must submit your completed application by March 27, 2019 to be considered.

Selection Process and Notification

The selection committee will meet after the deadline of March 27, 2019 to review all applications and select the recipients. Selection of applicants will be based on eligibility and bursary criteria. Athletes will be notified in writing of the decision of the selection committee no later than March 31st 2019.

Please submit your completed application by the deadline to Sandra@Freestylecanada.ski